A Curiosity.

We were shown yesterday by Mr. A. M. Spiro, the greatest curiosity we have seen in many a day, namely: a hen with four legs and feet, four wings, two backbones and two tails. Mr. Spiro expects to exhibit it at his stand at the fair ground.

Postponement.

On account of the money pressure, the sale of property of H. C. Tarwater, advertised to come off to-day, is postponed until some future day to be mentioned. It is still offered, however, at private sale.

WM. RULE, Trustee.

Giant Bean.

We were shown yesterday a specimen of the vegetable kingdom which is the largest in the way of a bean that we ever saw, the pod measuring twelve inches in length. The beans are white, about the size of an average chestnut, and are said to be excellent. This variety is called the mammoth soup bean. Mr. C. Nelson, who showed us the specimen, paid twelve and a half cents for the seed.

Stove Fashion.

Call at Hoxie & DePue's and see this stove, the most celebrated stove ever offered in this community, 50,000 sold. We also have a large stock of heating stoves for wood and coal. Liberal discounts made to churches and schools. We make a specialty of stoves, and can give all satisfaction who will favor us with their patronage. xlv2t

Burned Out.

We learn that on Monday night about 11 o'clock the residence of Calvin Nance, Jr., who lived about five miles from New Market, south of the Holston river, was consumed by fire. He lost everything he possessed, including his clothing and one hundred and seventy-five dollars in currency which he had left in the pants he had worn the day previous. It is supposed that the fire originated from a defective flue.

Hon. J. M. Thornburgh.

We learn, through a telegram to his law partner in this city, that our worthy representative Hon. J. M. Thornburgh arrived in New-York, on Saturday evening last. We presume he will be with us very shortly. His many friends will gladly welcome him back from his long journeyings. His opportune presence in Vienna was exceedingly fortunate for East Tennessee, in the matter of our part in the great Exposition.

Corner Stone Laid.

Saturday afternoon at two o'clock, the corner stone for the new addition to the Deaf and Dumb Asylum, was laid, the ceremony being performed by Prof. Hams, in the sign language. A tin box containing copies of the KNOXVILLE CHRONICLE, the Press and Herald, the Presbyterian Record, and a number of valuable pieces of coin, furnished by the boys of the Institution, also a list of the teachers of the institution and contractors, &c., of the building was placed in a receptacle prepared for it, to be admired by a future generation. The building to be erected, after the plans of architect A. C. Bruce, will add much to the general appearance of the Asylum.

Healthful Sign.

The money panic does not seem to affect the real estate market in Knoxville seriously. Chancellor Temple has just been disposing of some fine lots near his homestead to gentlemen who contemplate improving them for their own use. Among those who have purchased large lots, are W. L. Mead, late of New York, W. P. Chamberlain, J. B. Johnson and Col. Felix A. Reeve, of Greenville, who, we are glad to learn, will make Knoxville his future home. Still others are talking of purchasing from Judge Temple, who has several beautiful sites to dispose of on the Kingston pike and on Temple avenue. It is a very desirable locality for residences.

Church Dedication.

The new Methodist Church in North-west Knoxville was dedicated on Sabbath afternoon. Rev. N. E. Cobleigh, D. D. L. D., preached the dedicatory sermon. After the services a collection was taken up which was liberally responded to, the sum of $365 being contributed, which was almost enough to liquidate the entire debt of the church.

The building was erected in great part by voluntary contributions, and the successful termination of the work is due in a great measure to the efforts of Rev. J. F. Spence and a few other noble-hearted gentlemen who unobtrusively prosecuted the work.

JAIL DELIVERY.

Eight Desperate Characters at Large.

On Sabbath morning it was discovered by the jailer that a number of prisoners had made their escape, and upon further examination it was found that they succeeded in getting out that morning about 4 o'clock, by cutting their way through from the lower cell to the upper, and thence out through the roof with a small key-hole saw, having prior the sheet iron sheathing off with a small bar of iron. They then let themselves down off the roof by means of a rope made of their bed clothing. From the remaining prisoners Mr. De Armond, the jailer, learned that the tools were handed in during Thursday night, and it is presumed that the wife of Staples, one of the escaped prisoners, furnished them. They were purchased at Van Gilder's hardware store.

So far none of the prisoners have been recaptured, although Sheriff Gossett had about fifty men out all day on the Sabbath, scouting the entire country within ten miles of the city. It is to be hoped, however, that they may yet be overtaken and brought to justice.

Day of Atonement.

Yesterday evening at six o'clock the Jewish Yom-ki-pur, or day of atonement, commenced and lasts until six o'clock this evening. At an early hour a large congregation of Hebrews, as well as a number of Christians gathered in Spiro's Hall, where divine services were being conducted by Julius Ochs, Esq. After singing and prayer in their own ancient language, Esquire Ochs delivered a sermon in the English language, in which he briefly reviewed the history of the Jews, and their fidelity to their faith, showing how many had suffered death rather than deny their religion. "About four thousand years ago this day of atonement was instituted by God, and to-day in every land and country where the Hebrew is known, it is strictly observed by them. It matters not how many of the remaining laws, instituted about the same time they neglect or reject, they are faithful in the observance of this." He here explained the reason for this, stating they believed in a future life and a future reward and punishment, and as the perplexities of life and the toils of every day business did not give a man an opportunity to see to his spiritual wants, and hence God in his mercy had instituted one day in each year for atonement for the sins committed during the past year, a day to be devoted exclusively to the worship of God, in repentance and humiliation, when all worldly thoughts are to be excluded. He here entered into a defense of the Hebrew religion, and their faith in God alone without a mediator. The services were concluded by singing and prayer in their own language. There will be service again to-day in Spiro's Hall at 9 o'clock A. M. All who may desire to witness these services are invited to be present.—Daily Ist.

Dissolution of Partnership.

The copartnership heretofore existing between the undersigned, in the Real Estate, Insurance and Steamship Agency, has this day been dissolved by mutual consent. Mr. Spencer Munson, succeeding to the business of the firm. In severing our business relations, we take pleasure in extending our grateful acknowledgments to numerous patrons at home and abroad for their liberal and friendly patronage and encouragement in the enterprise in which we have been engaged.

SPENCER MUNSON,

E. P. BAILEY.

Knoxville, Tenn., Oct. 1st, 1873.

In succeeding to the business of the late firm of Munson & Bailey, I would tender my thanks to the many patrons and correspondents of the firm, and hope to merit a continuance of their patronage in my individual undertaking, and am pleased to say that the prospects for trade in real estate, are very flattering notwithstanding the great money crisis now exciting the whole country. The correspondence of the firm for several months is very encouraging as to immigration and general investment.

I shall continue to publish the Land Register monthly, and shall endeavor to make it an assistant and easy reference for both buyers and sellers. It will contain valuable information for all who desire to locate in East Tennessee. A special feature in the Register will be an Exchange List, which will contain a list of all kinds of property for exchange, either for property, stock, merchandise, &c., &c., in fact everything in this line. To those having property to sell, I can assure them that the Land Register will reach a larger number of customers than any other Real Estate paper ever published in East Tennessee.

SPENCER MUNSON.

Knoxville, Tennessee, Oct. 1, 1873.

Dedication.

The new Cumberland Presbyterian Church at Beaver Creek, on the Clinton road, eighteen miles from Knoxville, will be dedicated on the third Sabbath in this month. Rev. J. B. Dobson, will preach the dedicatory sermon. The public are invited to attend. x8dewlt

GRAIN DRILLS: GRAIN DRILLS: GRAIN DRILLS!!!

Something for Farmers to Ponder.

The experience of the past year proves that wheat put in with a drill, yields from two to ten bushels of wheat more to the acre than when sown in the ordinary way. This fact can be proved by the testimony of every farmer in East Tennessee who used a drill last year. We know of several instances where the additional yield of one crop more than paid for the drill.

To enable the farmers of East Tennessee to possess one of these most valuable farming implements, we have taken the General Agency for the celebrated KELLER DRILL, and have put the price within the reach of all. Ample time will be given so that the payments may be made without inconvenience. Send for circular, terms, etc.

Resolutions of Respect.

WHEREAS, The sad intelligence comes to our Lodge that our beloved brother, Wm. Wallace, has been removed from the earthly temple (on August 29th, 1873) to that spiritual temple beyond the skies, thereby dissolving the bond of fraternal union and friendship which has so long and firmly endeared us together.

WHEREAS, Valley Lodge No. 383 is thus bereaved of a most active and most worthy member, a wise, judicious counsellor, a friend in every need; indeed, one of the very pillars of the structure, having been one of the chief agents in bringing said Lodge into existence; Masonry in general an eminent member, a firm advocate and devoted friend, his family a most pious, kind and affectionate husband and father, the Church an active and zealous member, the Gospel a warm friend and zealous supporter, ever responding with voice and means to its needs, the community and country a very useful citizen, in the prime of usefulness; therefore

Be it resolved, That while we, the members of said Lodge, meekly bow to His Divine will, we deeply lament the loss of our esteemed and useful brother, whose genial voice has so often instructed us from his wonted place in the East in our many social and moral duties. But since death is a common lot and necessary tribute, we rejoice that our faith in our immortal brother's Christian fidelity leads us to think him in a land of eternal rest.

Be it resolved, That we sincerely regret that our worthy brother should have been carried away by a pestilence so malignant in its character as to preclude the rites to and at his last resting place which would otherwise have been so sincerely bestowed.

Be it resolved, That we will ever venerate his many virtues and will gratefully remember his many kindnesses to us as a Lodge and individually.

Be it resolved, That we deeply sympathize with the bereaved family that has lost its chief support and guide, in this their terrible affliction, and would direct them for comfort to the many promises left on record to the widowed and orphaned in that great Light of Lights.

Be it resolved, That we, the members of Valley Lodge, wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days, and drape our lodge and jewelry in the same, in token of our respect to our departed brother. Also that a copy of these resolutions be delivered to the family of the departed brother, spread upon our journal and forwarded to the Knoxville CHRONICLE and Press and Messenger for publication.

J. K. P. WALLACE,

JOHN BAKER,

OBEDIAH HALL,

Committee.

WHEREAS, Our Supreme Grand Master, in his inscrutable providence, has removed our esteemed brother, J. H. Lewis from our midst, who departed this life on the 29th of July, 1873; and

WHEREAS, Valley Lodge No. 383 has lost one of its most worthy members, his family, a kind and devoted husband and father, the church a zealous member, the community a useful, valuable member, in the prime and vigor of manhood and usefulness; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we, the members of said Lodge, greatly sympathize with the bereaved family, in this great visitation of Divine Providence, and irreparable loss, and trust it may receive the terrible misfortune with Christian resignation, in a spirit that all is for the better done by the Allwise and as a lesson admonishing us how evanescent is life, and how important to be ready for the final summons.

Resolved, That each member of said Lodge wear the customary badge of mourning for thirty days and that our Lodge and implements be draped for the same time.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be forwarded to the family of our esteemed brother, with our many friendly assurances, be spread upon our Lodge journal and transmitted to the Knoxville CHRONICLE, and Press and Messenger for publication.

J. K. P. WALLACE,

HENRY CLEAR,

J. C. SCRAGGS,

Committee.

Patronage That Pays.

That noble institution, the Public Library of Kentucky, has permanently established its prosperity by the three gift concerts it has already given under its charter. It now boasts of a building that cost $210,000, with a library of over 50,000 volumes, and a magnificent cabinet. The fourth grand gift concert for its further endowment will take place December 3d, and at this concert $1,500,000 cash is distributed to the ticket holders, the highest prize being $250,000, and scaling down to prizes of $50, which is the smallest sum given. As there is a prize to every fifth ticket, it is easy to see that the patronage of this concert is a patronage that pays, there being great chances of great gains, and only small chances of small losses. Hon. Thos. E. Bramlette, late Governor of Kentucky, is the manager, and tickets and information may be obtained by addressing him, at Public Library Building, Louisville, Ky. x7dewlt

McMinn County.

COMMERCIAL.

KNOXVILLE WHOLESALE MARKETS.
CHRONICLE OFFICE, KNOXVILLE, TENN., }
October 7, 1873.

Grain and Produce.

Owing to a stringency in financial matters, wheat continues dull sale at from 10 to 20 cents below our former quotations. There is scarcely anything doing in the shipping line, and millers here are also slow in buying, as their mills are stocked with flour and they are not willing to carry a heavy stock of wheat at former figures, and will only buy prime lots at reduced prices, their quotations being from 10 to 15 cents below those formerly given. It is difficult, under the present unsettled condition of financial matters South, to give correct quotations, but we think that those given below will cover the state of the market.

The flour market is dull in proportion to the wheat market. As above stated, the mills are all well stocked with flour, while the extreme stringency in the money market South virtually stops all shipping operations. We continue our last week's quotations, but have no transactions of importance to note at these figures.

The corn market remains very dull, in fact, there is scarcely anything doing in that line. The dried fruit market continues active in the North, with considerable inquiry here; but as there is not much dried fruit in the country, no settled price has been fixed. We still quote dried fruit nominal.

Eggs are in better demand and readily taken at 12 1/2 cents.

The bacon market has been affected by the unsettled condition of the money market, and we note a decline in the same. We quote bacon at 10 1/2 cts, hog round.

GRASS SEED.—There is a better demand for grass seeds, prices, however, remain unchanged. The following are the quotations of leading articles:
